

Beezumph Rally 16th/17th July 2010.

TR3OC www.tr3oc.co.uk

WATOC ILO John Young mail: johnsonia@adamsonyoung.fsnet.co.uk

The annual Beezumph Rally, run by the TR3OC, has gained in popularity over the past thirteen years, with over 1000 people now regularly attending.

The TR3OC have successfully provided an event suitable for all motorcycle enthusiasts who wish to take part in Track Sessions AND who enjoy attending a decent Brit-bike orientated motorcycle rally.

The Beezumph Rally is a family event, and most people take advantage of the free camping by arriving on Thursday ready for an early start to the action on Friday!

The action continues through Friday and Saturday, with experts and novices alike taking to the track. Saturday night brings the now famous BEER, BBQ and BAND BASH in the marquee

And of course you get to meet many famous people like Paul Smart, Tony Jefferies, Percy Tait, Mick Grant etc

The rally ticket which gets you camping, badge and BBQ (as well as seeing the track action) is £20 for the weekend.

Riding on the track.

Friday: TR3OC Members: £130 Non Members £140

Saturday: TR3OC Members: £125 Non Members £135

Entry Level Class : £30 Sidecars (Friday & Saturday) : £35

Day Tickets (advance sales) : £10 (On the day will be charged at normal Anglesey Track rate)

Anglesey circuit is on the isle of Anglesey. In fact any further and it would be in the sea. Approach is on the A5 and over the Britannia Bridge. The A5 becomes the A4080. Follow signs to Rhosneigr. Pass through the town and follow the route to Aberffraw. The circuit is signposted from this road.

Set on the west coast of Anglesey, overlooking the Irish Sea and the Snowdonia mountain range beyond, Anglesey Circuit provides visitors with a challenging and exciting circuit in a breathtaking location.